

Emergency Medical Services Department
Bachelor's of EMS Management Degree
Accreditation Assessment Report

2015-2016 Theaker requires full a hand applied skills and it top

II. Program Purpose, Objectives and Student Learning

A. Program Purpose

The BS in EMS Management is designed to provide an understanding of general management principals, and how EMS management challenges experienced in the industry.

B. Program Educational Objectives

1. Foster professional growth in communication, technical, quantitative literacy, and diversity.
2. Prepare students to advance their professional management pre-hospital clinical practice.
3. Establish a framework for students to develop a management challenges.

C. Expected Program Learning Outcomes

Graduates from this program will be able to:

1. Have awareness in all, and proficiency in most, provided in the EMS industry today.
2. Articulate general management practices and the
3. Read and critically evaluate how research in EMS practices.
4. Take a hands-on leadership role in helping to solve challenges in the community.

III. Three-Year Cycle for Assessment of Student Learning Outcomes

Learning Outcomes	'16-17	'17-18	'18-19	'19-20	'20-21	'21-22
1. Have awareness in all, and proficiency in most, of the different medical service offerings provided in the EMS industry today.	X			X
2. Articulate general management practices and their role in the EMS industry.		X			X
3. Read and critically evaluate how research in EMS is developed and contributes to EMS practices.			X			X
4. Take a hands-on leadership role in helping to solve current day EMS management challenges in the community.	X			X

IV. Summary of Current Academic Year Assessment Activities

The BS degree is a new offering in the EMS Department and is anticipated to have <5 graduates at the end of the 2015-2016 academic year. Based on these low numbers our assessment activities will commence the following year as the number of graduates presumably increases.