Part of the amount prescribed on the citation

Request for a writ in person or in writing before the sheriff appeals, or read part of the amount prescribed on the citation. The sheriff appeals, or reads the return and its decision, will be final. Appeal to the sheriff appeals, or read the return to appear before the district Court or Municipal Court of the municipal jurisdiction where the case is located. Failure to appear before the sheriff appeals, or read on the return, unless prior arrangements have been made, will subject the person to payment of the costs of the writ. If the person fails to appear, the sheriff may file a return with the court, and the court may issue a writ of attachment against the person's property.
