

- g. Agreed-upon annual goals form the basis for the Annual Evaluation and the process provides an opportunity to re-set goals and establish new goals for the following year;
- h. Criteria for the Annual and Comprehensive Evaluation, agreed upon by the President and Board leadership upon hiring and at each evaluation, should reflect the dimensions of leadership that the Board and the President believe are most important to advance the mission;
- i.

