

ORS 352.025 The Legislative Assembly finds that the State of Oregon will benefit from having public universities with governing boards that:

- (a) Provide transparency, public accountability and support for the university.
- (b) Are close to and closely focused on the individual university.
- (c) Lead to greater access and affordability for Oregon residents and do not disadvantage Oregon students relative to out-of-state students.
- (d) Act in the best interests of both the university and the State of Oregon as a whole.
- (e) Promote the academic success of students in support of the mission of all education beyond high school.

Oregon Institute of Technology (Oregon Tech), Oregon's public polytechnic university, offers innovative, professionally-focused undergraduate and graduate degree programs in the areas of engineering, health, business, technology, and applied arts and sciences. To foster student and graduate success, the university provides a hands-on, project-based learning environment and emphasizes innovation, scholarship, and applied research. With a commitment to diversity and leadership development, Oregon Tech offers statewide educational opportunities and technical expertise to meet current and emerging needs of Oregonians as well as other national and international constituents.

- The President has primary responsibility for communicating with and making recommendations to the Board. The Board expects the President, as appropriate, to provide meaningful opportunity for duly elected or appointed representative of the Faculty Senate, Administrative Council, and ASOIT, to offer input and advice on the President's recommendations.
 - In presenting recommendations to the Board for Board action, the President is encouraged to present a balanced discussion that reflects feedback from the aforementioned constituent groups where there is a clear and consistent voice that may differ from the President's conclusion. While the Board recognizes that the President may need to make recommendations to the Board that may not hold the support of a significant number of constituents of the university community, the Board should hear both sides of the discussion before a final decision can be made.

- The Board will, consistent with its Board Policy on the Conduct of Public Meetings, reserve a specific time for one duly elected representative from each of the Faculty Senate, Administrative Council, and ASOIT to address the Board on any matter of concern facing the faculty, staff, or students respectively.
 - The Board expects the University's president to meet personally with the duly elected chair or president of the Faculty Senate, Administrative Council, and ASOIT regularly, but preferably at least monthly, to ensure open communication and prompt discussion and consideration of matter of concern.

- : The Board is vested with the ultimate fiduciary authority to manage the affairs of the University under Oregon law and applicable Board Policies and actions, including the Board policy on Delegation of Authority. The Board shall receive and consider input and advice from university stakeholders, as articulated in this resolution, either through the President or directly to the Board through processes and channels established by the Board.
