What did the committee accomplish this year?

1. To engage the campus, including students, we first brought on a Wakaya Wells, the new Multicultural Student Services coordinator able to coordinate campus-wide engagement and highlight the importance of Diverse Perspectives across campus. One way that we emphasized Diverse Perspectives across campus was through tagging Diverse Perspective events that we included in our monthly campus calendar (that is reproduced and posted across piloting the revised rubric to see if any further revisions are necessary (that is explained in this report).
