Your HOME school will be where:

You will be enrolled in a MINIMUM of 6 credits
You are pursuing a declared major/degree
You will be receiving your Financial Aid
You will be enrolled in primarily 300 and 400 level courses

Your HOST school will be where:

You are NOT pursuing your major/degree
You are NOT receiving your Financial Aid

I understand that in order to be Dual Enrolled I am responsible to:
(Please check the following boxes)

- Be admitted to both the host school and the home school as a dual admit student
- File a FAFSA for the current aid year
- Only receive Financial Aid through my home school
- Be enrolled in at least six credits with my home school
- Pay tuition and any other expenses to my host school for any costs that I incur
- Notify both Financial Aid offices if I am going to change my home school before the beginning of that term

**Portland Community College Dual Students, if Oregon Tech is your home school, please note: you do NOT need to fill out this form, please fill out the PCC Consortium Agreement found on <http://www.oit.edu/college-costs/financial-aid/resources/forms>*

**Klamath Community College Dual Students, please note: if KCC is your HOST school, class credits cannot be counted towards financial aid if that same class is offered at Oregon Tech during the same term (i.e. MTH 111 or WRI 121). Please see the Oregon Tech Financial Aid office with any questions.*

Please give us an idea about your overall academic plans, as you see it right now. (We realize plans can and will change.) For instance, do you plan to take courses just at the community college for one academic year and then begin taking courses at both schools concurrently? Or are you planning to take most courses at Oregon Tech with a few courses at your community college?
